Red Canvas Affair

February 3, 2012 - February 24, 2012

I understand that the Schertz Civic Center will handle all artwork with utmost care and respect but is not responsible for any stolen properties or damage to artworks.

I understand the Schertz Civic Center will have a staff member present during public exhibiting hours, Monday thru Friday from 8:00am to 5:00pm.

I, the artist, am responsible for installing my work on THURSDAY, February 3, 2012 anytime between the hours of 10 am and 4:00 pm. I will come prepared with all installation hardware such as nails, hammer, hooks, etc. The Schertz Civic Center will provide tables for 3D and/or pottery works. I will pay $5 for the participation fee.

I, the artist, am responsible for de-installation and pick up of artwork on THURSDAY, February 24, 2012 anytime between the hours of 10:00 am and 4:00 pm.

Any artwork not picked up will only be held for 3 working days afterward (until Feb. 27, 2012) and then will be disposed of. Any artwork not picked up by Feb. 27, 2012 is not the responsibility of the Schertz Civic Center. The Schertz Civic Center will not be held responsible for any damage done.

If any of my artwork sells during the exhibition while I (the artist) am not physically present, the Schertz Civic Center will process the transaction for me.

Funds will be deposited into Schertz Area ArtZ Council (SAAC) account. A check will be written by SAAC payable to the artist. The Schertz Civic Center & SAAC will keep 20% application fee on total sales of individual artist.

I give the Schertz Civic Center and the Schertz Area ArtZ Council permission to use any photographs taken at this event to be used for promotional purposes only. Any individual sales or monetary gain from these images is not permitted.
